

Lester E. Wade d Apr 18 1981

TWISP — Lester E. Wade, 43, Carlton, died Saturday at his home.

He was born in Birdseye, Ind., on Aug. 14, 1937, and graduated from Bossee High School in Evansville, Ind. He served with the U.S. Army in Germany from 1957 to 1959 as a tank section leader.

On July 28, 1979, he married Deborah Poston in Burien and they moved to Carlton in December of 1980.

He was a member of the St. John's Lodge No. 9, F&AM, Scottish Rite Temple, and Nile Temple, all of Seattle.

Survivors include his wife, Deborah, at home; two daughters, Sandra K. Wade and Mrs. David (Crystal Kay) Hickox, both of Jacksonville, Ill.; a sister, Mrs. Wanda Hearn, Edmonds; and one grandson.

Precht's Methow Valley Chapel, Twisp, is in charge of arrangements.

Published:

Wenatchee World, Wenatchee,
Chelan Co., WA, 1981.

Copied from microfilm by:

Wenatchee Area Genealogical Society
info@wags-web.org

LESTER E. WADE — Services will be Wednesday, April 22 at 1 p.m. from the Prechts' Methow Valley Chapel. Rev. Larry Trim & the Masonic Lodge will be coofficiants. Burial will be in the Beaver Creek Cemetery. The family requests that donations be made to 1 of 4: Shriner's Hospital for Crippled Children, Washington State Heart Assoc., American Diabetes Assoc., or the charity of one's choice. Prechts' Methow Valley Chapel, Twisp.